

T H E S T A T E S | P R E S S

“This is a song of painful loss, but this band offers a bit of darkness to show the little light inside us.”

“The States deliver Sunday morning sunshine to a rough Saturday night recovery. There’s cool juice and no shoes. Your hair is messed up. Your breath is awful. You have a little fuck you in your heart, but you’re determined and woke.”

Mitch Foster - Shows I Go To

“If there’s such a genre as “arena indie”, that would describe the sound of The States”

Allen Halas - Breaking and Entering

“If you spend most of your day listening to alternative rock or even classic rock, but are tired of the same old stuff, well you have to listen to “As Cruel As Youth”. Its great music everyone can relate to. I tip my hat to the The States on their debut effort. It hasn’t left my player for the last week!”

Rick Jamm - Jamsphere Magazine

“Shows I Go To founder Mitchel described them as ‘all the good parts of Mumford & Sons,’ but I’d like to clarify that they’re about 1,000 times better than that.”

The Vinyl Warhol - The Vinyl Warhol

“With a sound as indie as it is Americana, they build slow-burning anthems of towering tenderness with drama and scale that can crest up to two drummers.”

Bao Le-Huu - Orlando Weekly